DETAILED ACTION

Status of the claims: Claims 1-10 and 18 are currently pending.

Priority: This application is a 371 of PCT/US04/23425 (07/20/2004) which claims benefit of 60/489,699 (07/24/2003).

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of group I (product of claims 1-10) in the reply filed on 12/03/2007 is acknowledged. Applicant also elected the following species (reading on claims 1, 2, 4, 6, 10, and 18):

No generic claim was found patentable, as detailed in the following rejections. Therefore, the claims are restricted to the elected species only and the remaining subject matter withdrawn. The restricted subject matter may be eligible for rejoinder if applicant responds in a manner that avoids all of the prior art.

RESPONSE TO APPLICANT'S ARGUMENTS

Double Patenting

1. Claims 1, 2, 4, 6, and 10 were rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1-5 of U.S. Patent No. 10/564347. Based on applicant's discussion of how the claims in the two applications differ, this rejection is withdrawn. Specifically, the carboxyl group is at the 4' position in the '347 application versus the 2' position in the instant application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. Claims 1, 2, 4, and 10 were rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cho et al. (in IDS: J.O.C. 1999, 64, p. 8048-8050). Applicant's amendment to the claims of changing C1-C10-alkyl to only tert-buty causes the claims to avoid the prior art. Therefore, this rejection is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1, 2, and 10 were rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Applicant's amendment to the claims now makes them definite by the recitation of the specific substituents. Therefore, this rejection is withdrawn.

NEW REJECTIONS

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Smith et al. (Journal of Organic Chemistry (1984), 49(24), 4602-9).

The reference teaches the following compound: which anticipates the claims when R1 is t-butyl; and R2 is Methyl.

5. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Eisner et al. (STN Abstract of Journal of the Chemical Society (1957) 733-9).

The reference teaches the following compound anticipating the claim:

Claim Objections

The pending claims are objected for reading on non-elected subject matter as a result of the restriction to the elected species ONLY. Claims 2, 3, and 10 are objected to for being dependent on a rejected base claim.

Conclusion

No claims are in condition for allowance. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
